NAMI: opportunities to get free training in the art of facilitating _____. Thanks to Manda T., John Friesman, and Cindy McCalmont for their hard work in securing a grant for this work.

Mt Cross: Lots of opportunities to partner with, use their facility (free retreat for rostered clergy!), bring your church councils, women's men's groups, youth, etc etc. And, please, consider your financial support to our camp! We are looking for not only monthly sustaining donors but also support of our capital campaign for much needed upgrades of our large group gathering spaces. If you haven't been to Mt Cross, Adam and Sarah are around on site quite often for tours. To get in touch, emails are adam@mtcross.org or sarah@mtcross.org

John S. COPA: Community Organizing Group, organizations, institutions and groups, Are you interested in community organizing, please contact John Sullivan jsullivan806@comcast.net

Jared Oluch: Christ Community Church---a new church plant. They are meeting at Christ the Good Shepherd in San Jose, ministering to Immigrants and people new to the area (Jared and his wife and ministry partner are originally from Kenya)

Synod Authorized Worshipping Community (SAWC) How can we support them? Finances, places to gather, How to contact: Jared: tubungu07@gmail.com

RSCP: at Prince of Peace in Saratoga :over the past year and a half we have been working together to host our unhoused on our worship community sites. It is a cool community partnership that utilizes and leverages work with our sheriff's department, local city, etc. We (RSCP) can help train and teach you how to do an RSCP. Contact us! rscp@propeace.org

Encompass Ministries: A very cool way to support and care for those who are unhoused. They are always looking for volunteers to staff tables, interact with guests, etc. They are also looking for health and personal care items to give out. Save your shampoo, soap, etc from hotel stays. Jim also advises that if you live in a place or municipality that has a mobile shower unit. Offer to set up a table with hygiene products. Contact Jim Clark-Moore for more information
